STARTUP & INNOVATION

UNIVERSITY

WHERE IDEAS COME ALIVE.

Academic Year
2019- 2020

Date: 15/07/2019

To,

The Provost,
Swarrnim Startup and Innovation University,
Gandhinagar- 322420

Subject: Commencement of Soft Skills and Training Classes

As the Manager of the Training and Placement Department, I am writing to propose an initiative that will significantly enhance our student's employability and overall professional development.

In today's competitive job market, technical skills alone are not sufficient. Employers increasingly seek candidates with strong skills—such as communication, teamwork, adaptability, and problem-solving abilities. To address this need, I recommend the introduction of Soft Skills training classes across all departments.

I kindly request your support in implementing this initiative. Let us work together to prepare our students for success beyond academia.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Mr. Vijayant Kumar
Director,
Training and Placement Department
Swarrnim Startup and Innovation University

Avoid aggressive and passive-aggressive behaviors, as they can lead to misunderstandings and strain relationships. Encourage open dialogue, active listening, and empathy to promote effective communication with others.
AV-2	Learn to say no	How To Say No?	Learning to say no is an essential skill that empowers us to set boundaries and prioritize our well-being. The key points to remember when addressing "How to Say No" are: First, be assertive but polite, clearly stating your decision without apologizing excessively. Second, consider the request and your existing commitments, ensuring you don't overcommit yourself. Third, offer alternatives or suggest someone else who might be able to help.
AV-3	Interview Skills	How To Be Interview Ready?	To be interview-ready, focus on three key points: preparation, presentation, and confidence. First, research the company and the role extensively, understanding their values, products, and industry trends. Practice common interview questions and be ready to showcase your skills and experiences with specific examples. Second, present yourself professionally by dressing appropriately, maintaining good body language, and showing enthusiasm for the opportunity.

Sr No	(AV aids)	Salient Features	Key Points
AV-1	Mindfulness	Stress Management	Stress management to college students involves emphasizing key points to help them effectively cope with the pressures and demands of academic life. First, it's crucial to prioritize self-care by practicing healthy habits such as regular exercise, adequate sleep, and balanced nutrition. Encourage students to identify and utilize stress reduction techniques that work for them, such as deep breathing exercises and mindfulness.
AV-2	Emotional signs of anger	Anger Management	Acknowledging that anger is a normal emotion that everyone experiences, but it's how we express and manage it that matters. Encourage students to identify their triggers and recognize the physical and emotional signs of anger. Teach them effective communication skills to express their feelings calmly and assertively.
AV-3	Self discipline	Self Management	When addressing self-management to college students, it is essential to emphasize the following key points. Firstly, prioritize time effectively by creating a schedule or to-do list, allowing for balanced attention to academics, extracurricular activities, and personal life. Secondly, practice self-discipline by setting realistic goals and staying focused on them, avoiding procrastination, and maintaining a healthy work-life balance.
AV-4	Enhance self awareness	Johari Window	The Johari Window is a valuable tool for college students to enhance self-awareness and improve interpersonal communication. Its key points can be summarized as follows: The Johari Window is a model that helps individuals understand themselves and their relationships with others.
AV-5	Self regulation through EI	Introduction To Emotional Intelligence	By developing emotional intelligence, students can enhance their self-awareness, self-regulation, motivation, empathy, and social skills. This not only contributes to personal well-being and mental health but also fosters better relationships, effective communication, and leadership abilities. Encouraging students to cultivate emotional intelligence equips them with valuable tools to succeed academically, professionally, and personally, enabling them to navigate challenges, make sound decisions, and build meaningful connections in a rapidly changing world.

Sr No	(AV aids)	Salient Features	Key Points
AV - 6	Empathy Management	Understand With Empathy	Understanding with empathy is a crucial skill that college students can cultivate to enhance their relationships, communication, and personal growth. It involves putting oneself in someone else's shoes, acknowledging their emotions, and showing compassion. By practicing empathy, students can foster deeper connections with their peers, professors, and the wider community. Key points to address include actively listening to others without judgment, seeking to understand different perspectives, and validating the feelings and experiences of others.
AV - 7	Just a minute sessions	One Minute JAM Sessions	This session will help to highlight the importance of effective communication skills, including public speaking, interpersonal skills, and active listening.
AV - 8	GD techniques	Introduction to GD	Group Discussion, or GD, is an essential skill that college students need to master. It involves a structured conversation among a group of individuals on a specific topic. The primary objective of GD is to exchange ideas, analyze different perspectives, and develop critical thinking skills.

SOFT SKILLS REPORTS YEAR 2019-20

Name of Workshop: Foster Creativity
Date of Workshop: October 9, 2019
Organized by: Training And Placement Department, SSIU

Objective: To encourage creative thinking and innovation among students.

Report: Students participated in various creative activities, including art projects, storytelling, and innovation challenges. They were encouraged to think divergently and explore multiple solutions to problems. The program fostered an environment where creativity was valued and nurtured, leading to increased innovation and originality in students' work.

Program Outcome: The program involved brainstorming sessions, creative writing exercises, and arts-based activities. Students explored different ways to express their ideas and solve problems creatively, enhancing their ability to think outside the box.

Name of Workshop: Enhance Interpersonal Skills
Date of Workshop: October 23, 2019
Organized by: Training And Placement Department, SSIU

Objective: To strengthen students' ability to interact positively and effectively with others.

Report: The interpersonal skills program featured interactive workshops on communication techniques, empathy exercises, and social interaction simulations. Students practiced active listening and engaged in activities designed to build trust and rapport. These experiences helped them develop stronger, more positive relationships with peers and colleagues.

Program Outcome: Students engaged in activities that promoted communication, empathy, and relationship-building. They learned the importance of body language, active listening, and emotional intelligence, which improved their interactions and relationships.

Name of Workshop: Improve Adaptability
Date of Workshop: November 6, 2019
Organized by: Training And Placement Department, SSIU

Objective: To help students become more flexible and adaptable to change.

Report: Students participated in exercises that simulated real-life changes and unexpected challenges. They learned about coping mechanisms and stress management techniques. Through these activities, students developed greater resilience and the ability to stay calm and focused in the face of change.

Program Outcome: The program included scenarios and simulations that required students to adapt to new situations. They learned strategies for managing stress and uncertainty, which enhanced their resilience and ability to handle change effectively.

Name of Seminar: Enhance Networking Skills
Date of Seminar: November 20, 2019
Organized by: Training And Placement Department, SSIU

Objective: To teach students effective networking strategies for building professional relationships.

Report: The networking skills program included seminars on the importance of networking and how to create a professional presence. Students learned to craft effective elevator pitches and practiced at simulated networking events. They also explored the use of social media for professional networking, which expanded their ability to connect with industry professionals.

Program Outcome: Students attended workshops on networking strategies, including elevator pitches and effective follow-up techniques. They practiced these skills in mock networking events, which helped them build confidence and establish meaningful professional connections.

Name of Seminar: Improve Public Speaking
Date of Seminar: December 4, 2019
Organized by: Training And Placement Department, SSIU

Objective: To develop student's confidence and proficiency in public speaking.

Report: The public speaking program involved a series of workshops focused on overcoming stage fright, structuring speeches, and engaging audiences. Students gave multiple speeches and received constructive feedback from peers and instructors. By the end of the program, they felt more confident and capable of delivering effective public speeches.

Program Outcome: Students participated in public speaking workshops where they practiced delivering speeches and presentations. They received feedback on their performance, which helped them improve their delivery, body language, and audience engagement.
