ORGANISED BY	SSIU
HEAD	DR. ARCHANA PANDEY

The Anti-Ragging Campaign, which took place on 01-12-2023, at Swarnim Science College, orchestrated by SSIU, proved to be a significant milestone in raising awareness and stimulating discourse surrounding the adverse effects of ragging within academic settings. Attended by a diverse spectrum of participants including students, educators, administrators, and community members, the event epitomized a unified effort to combat this pervasive issue. Commencing with illuminating sessions elucidating the multifaceted nature of ragging and its deleterious impact on the mental and emotional well-being of its victims, the campaign set a comprehensive groundwork for addressing the issue. Legal experts provided insights into the prevailing legal framework and anti-ragging regulations, underscoring the necessity for stringent enforcement to ensure compliance and act as a deterrent. Moreover, psychologists shed light on the enduring psychological ramifications of ragging, emphasizing the imperative for establishing robust support systems to aid victims. Interactive workshops and panel discussions served as pivotal forums for stakeholders to exchange experiences, perspectives, and effective strategies in both preventing and remedying ragging incidents. Fruitful deliberations ensued, focusing on proactive measures such as orientation programs, peer mentoring initiatives, and awareness campaigns. Furthermore, the campaign underscored the indispensable role of bystander intervention in cultivating a culture of zero tolerance towards ragging.

Conclusion: The Anti-Ragging Campaign emerged as a catalyst for concerted action and collaboration among stakeholders. Participants reaffirmed their dedication to implementing the discussed strategies and initiatives within their respective institutions. By fostering an ethos of respect, empathy, and inclusivity, the campaign envisioned a future where every educational establishment provides a secure and nurturing environment for all students, free from the scourge of ragging.

The Anti-Ragging Signature event, conducted on March 18, 2024, at Swarnim Science College, exemplified a concerted effort to address the scourge of ragging within the institution. Organized by college authorities, the event served as a platform to mobilize support and commitment towards eradicating ragging and fostering a safe and conducive learning environment. The event commenced with an inaugural ceremony, featuring speeches by dignitaries and guest speakers who underscored the imperative of collective action in combating ragging. Participants were sensitized to the detrimental effects of ragging on the psychological and emotional well-being of students, emphasizing the need for preventive measures and swift intervention. A central feature of the event was the signature campaign, where students, faculty, and staff pledged their dedication to maintaining a zero-tolerance stance against ragging. Through signing a pledge board, attendees affirmed their commitment to cultivating a culture of respect, empathy, and solidarity within the college community. Interactive sessions and workshops provided participants with insights into recognizing and addressing instances of ragging effectively. Legal experts elucidated anti-ragging regulations, while psychologists offered guidance on supporting victims and fostering a supportive environment.

Conclusion: The Anti-Ragging Signature event concluded with a renewed sense of purpose and determination among attendees. The collective pledge symbolized a shared commitment to creating a campus environment free from the menace of ragging. Moving forward, sustained efforts and vigilance will be essential to uphold the principles of dignity and safety for all members of the college community.

EVENT REPORT

NAME OF EVENT	ANTI RAGGING CAMPAIGN
DATE	19-12-2022
COORDINATOR	PANCHAL SONAL
VENUE	UNIVERSITY CAMPUS
STUDENTS PARTICIPATED	100
ORGANISED BY	SSIU
HEAD	DR. ARCHANA PANDEY

The Anti-Ragging Campaign held on 19-12-2022 at Swarnnim Science College was a resounding success in raising awareness and fostering dialogue about the detrimental effects of ragging in educational institutions. The event, organized by SSIU brought together students, educators, administrators, and community members to collectively combat this pervasive issue.

The campaign began with informative sessions highlighting the various forms of ragging and its detrimental impact on the mental and emotional well-being of victims. Legal experts elucidated the existing legal framework and anti-ragging regulations, emphasizing the importance of strict enforcement to ensure compliance and deterrence. Additionally, psychologists shed light on the long-term psychological repercussions of ragging and emphasized the need for robust support systems for victims. Interactive workshops and panel discussions provided a platform for stakeholders to share their experiences, perspectives, and best practices in preventing and addressing ragging incidents. Participants engaged in fruitful discussions on proactive prevention strategies, including orientation programs, peer mentoring initiatives, and awareness campaigns. Moreover, the campaign emphasized the pivotal role of bystander intervention in creating a culture of zero tolerance towards ragging.

Conclusion: In conclusion, the Anti-Ragging Campaign served as a catalyst for action and collaboration among stakeholders. Participants reaffirmed their commitment to implementing the discussed strategies and initiatives in their respective institutions. By fostering a culture of respect, empathy, and inclusivity, the campaign envisioned a future where every educational institution provides a safe and conducive environment for all students.
