Event Overview

On September 10, 2018, the Venus Institute of Physiotherapy organized a successful Sports Day at Swarnnim Playground, running from 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM. This event aimed to promote physical fitness, teamwork, and a sense of community among students.

Objectives

The main objectives of Sports Day were to:

- Encourage participation in physical activities.
- Foster teamwork and sportsmanship.
- Enhance student engagement outside of academic settings.

Participation

A total of 25 students participated in various sports activities, including relay races, basketball, badminton, and tug-of-war. The diverse range of events ensured that all students could showcase their talents and enjoy a day of healthy competition.

Coordination

The event was expertly coordinated by faculty members Dr. Hiren Damor, Dr. Mohamdsheh, and Dr. Krupa Mevada. Their leadership and support were crucial in ensuring the smooth execution of the day's activities, including managing logistics and ensuring the safety of all participants.

Outcomes

The Sports Day fostered camaraderie and teamwork among students, promoting the importance of physical fitness in their lives. Participants reported high levels of enjoyment and engagement, highlighting the positive impact of the event on their overall well-being.

Conclusion

The Sports Day at Venus Institute of Physiotherapy was a resounding success, achieving its goals of promoting fitness, teamwork, and community spirit. We look forward to organizing more such events in the future to further enhance student life and well-being at our institute.
