Report of Online Orientation Program organized by Swarnim Institute of Technology on 18th August 2020

On 18th August 2020, Swarnim Institute of Technology successfully conducted an Online Orientation Program for its new batch of students. The event aimed to welcome and guide the freshers about the institute's policies, academic framework, and facilities available for their holistic development.

Objective of the Program

The primary goal of the orientation program was to:

1. Familiarize students with the academic structure, rules, and regulations of the institute.
2. Introduce students to the faculty and administration.
3. Provide insights into co-curricular and extracurricular opportunities available.
4. Encourage a smooth transition to the online mode of learning due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

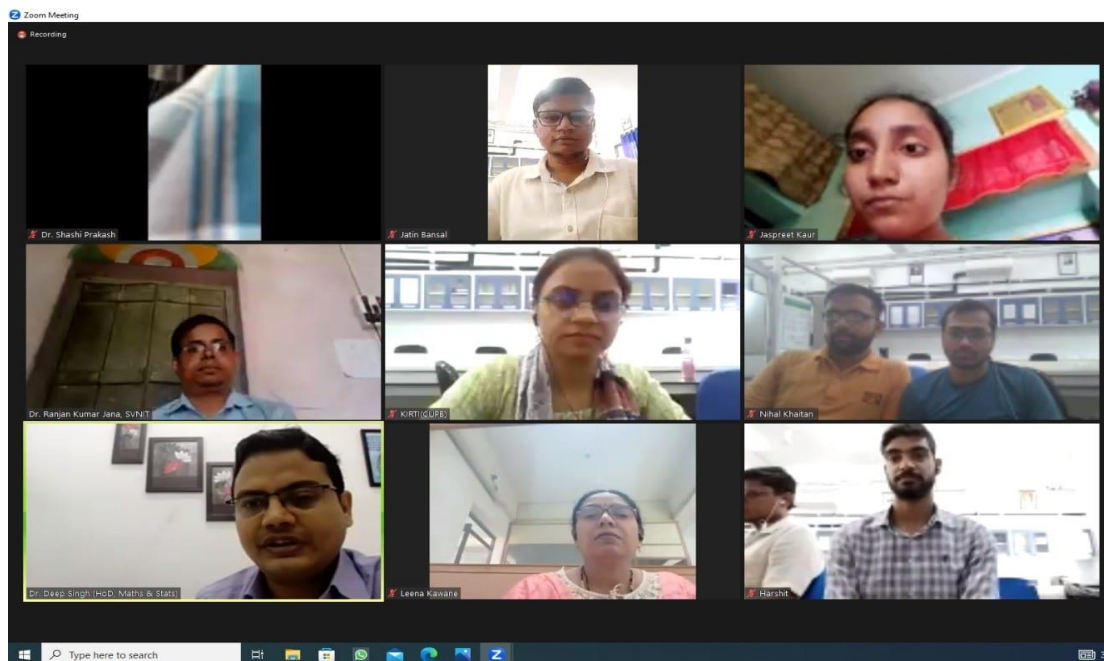

Platform and Mode

Due to the prevailing circumstances of the COVID-19 pandemic, the program was conducted in a fully online mode via the Zoom platform, ensuring the safety and well-being of students and faculty members.

Key Highlights of the Program

1. Inaugural Session: The event began with a welcome address by the Dean of Swarnim Institute of Technology, who emphasized the importance of technology-driven learning and adapting to the new normal of virtual education.
2. Address by Chief Guest: A keynote speech was delivered by the Chief Guest, a renowned industry expert, who shared valuable insights on the significance of innovation and the evolving role of technology in shaping future careers.
3. Faculty Introduction: Each department introduced their faculty members, with heads of departments giving a brief overview of their department's curriculum and research opportunities. This helped students get acquainted with the educators who will guide them throughout their academic journey.
4. Overview of Academic Policies and Curriculum: The academic coordinators explained the institute's examination pattern, grading system, and course structure. Special emphasis was placed on online learning resources and tools that the students would be using for their coursework during the semester.

5. Student Engagement and Extracurricular Opportunities: The program included an introduction to various clubs and societies within the institute, encouraging students to participate in co-curricular activities that would enhance their overall learning experience.
6. Interactive Q&A Session: An interactive session was held towards the end where students could ask questions and clarify any doubts they had regarding their curriculum, the online learning process, and other aspects of student life.
